Saturday Workshops

General Notes:

- Troupes should aim to send at least 1 representative to each state events their troupe plans to enter during conference. Troupes should ideally send people if they think there is any possibility or interest of someone in their troupe to enter the event.
- Troupes should split their student reps between the 4 Student Officer sessions as evenly as possible.
- Each school can have up to 2 participants sign up for a Make-up or Prop workshops. Please see the Registration desk for sign-ups and entry tickets.

Advocacy- How can you advocate for your troupe or program on a district, local, state, or national level? Find out about the issues that affect Missouri at the state and national level in the areas of advocacy. Missouri's very own Show-Me Summit and Fine Arts Advocacy Day hosted by the Missouri Alliance for Arts Education at the Capitol in March of 2018 will also be discussed as a great way to meet with legislators about issues specific to your troupe, program, or area of the state. Presenter: Teri Turner and Troupe 4261

Anniversary Project- The success or failure of a performance quite often hinges on the connection that performers and audience have to the material. Celebrating or commemorating events or people on significant anniversaries can intensify the connection. This session will begin with attendees participating in short examples of successful anniversary projects. Participants will then identify possible anniversaries for their programs, schools, or communities, including the upcoming 2020 Missouri Bicentennial, and begin developing possible applications in forensics pieces, readers theatre, one act plays, and full productions. Special attention will be given to devised performances that utilize original sources. The potential for cross-curricular projects will be explored as well as devised performances using original source material. Presenter: Ben Martin MAAE Executive Director

Awards and Grants – MST has a large number of awards and grants available for both teachers and students to apply for. This workshop will let the participants know what these are , what the requirements are, and how submit your application. Presenters: Sarah Serbus Troupe 5406/Chad Little Troupe 4551

Candidate Meeting - Students who have been placed on the ballot for State Officer will meet with current officers and Adult Board members to prepare for speeches and what to expect if they are elected. This workshop is only for STO Candidates.

Crazy Circus Cast- In this 45 minute worksoop, you will perfect the art of imperfection: theatre officer edition. There's no such thing as a tame circus, but the crowd still loves the show. So the question is: How do you get your offbeat officers to follow the elephant of choreography in management positions. Presenter: Trinity Madison STO Troupe 191

Detailed Registration Discussion- Presented with the newer sponsor in mind (as well as those sponsors who might struggle with registration), this workshop is a must if your troupe is planning on attending the '19 conference. The presentation will include detailed instructions for filling out the forms, entering registration on-line, deadlines, hotel reservations, sponsor duties (what they are and sign-ups), costs to anticipate, and other information you need to know to have a successful registration. This is a double-session so time for questions is allowed. Student delegates are also welcome to attend. Presenters: Jennifer Forrest-James Chapter Director/Troupe 3168 and Debbie Corbin EdTA President

FUNdraising - This fun and interactive session is all about how to raise money for your troupe and it isn't about selling anything from a catalogue or doing things door to door. Come with your ideas to share about how your troupe raises money and leave with some new ones. Start your year off right and with a little extra money in your activity account. Presenters: Brad Rackers Troupe 6761 and Kelly Michale Troupe 3732

Helping Students with Scholarships- This workshop is reserved for sponsors only to learn the Scholarship procedures, and ask in depth questions about how to fully go about preparing your student for college auditions. Presenters: Amie Gossett Troupe 4797 and Andrea Martin Alumni Coordinator

How to Be a Ringleader - With this workshop using the Myers-Briggs Personality types you will discover strengths and weaknesses of leaders in your team to put your officer board on top of the pedestal. Presenter: Dominic Barbosaa STO Troupe 4334

How to create a Tech Portfolio This workshop will help students create a technical portfolio that will showcase their best work. Presenter: Jay Rozema Missouri Valley College

IEs - If you or anyone from your troupe is planning on entering (or as an adult are volunteering to adjudicate) Individual Events, then you should make this workshop a priority. We will discuss of what the events are and rules to each, the registration process, the evaluation process (what getting a superior means), new forms, and finally the Red/Green Light list. Sample entries/performances will be included. Get a head start and begin preparing for your performance today. You might even qualify for the IE Showcase, and have the opportunity to perform for the entire delegation at conference! Presenters: Lorie O'Leary and Theresa Nigus Troupe 5140

Improv Intensive (Event formerly known as Improv Olympix) Discussion about games to anticipate, rules to these events, the evaluation process, where to find the intro and Games packet, and finally how to prepare for this event. If time permits some of the games will be played or previewed. Presenter: Jessica Winingham Troupe 2533

Leadership - The leadership skills I.T.S. teaches in high school can help you succeed in college. Mostly in regards to team building/ working in groups, problem solving, time management, and utilizing our creative brains to help us succeed in areas beyond the arts. Come work on these skills together with former STO Cassidy Munie Alumni Troupe 4551

Looking at College Programs - Do you wish to pursue theatre after high school but are confused in what you should do or where you should start? Join us for some tips and tricks in how to begin the search for your perfect theatre program, in everything from the proper etiquette of your application, to the suggested pieces for your audition to what all those different letters attached to the diploma mean about your training. Presenters: Andrea Martin Alumni Coordinator and Amie Gossett Troupe 4797

Make-up (This workshop is sponsored by Kryolan Corp) Curious about how the pro's produce flawless on-stage make-up performance after performance? Join this limited space workshop with the midwest's Kryolan Professional Make-Up Representative to have your production make-up questions answered as a full stage make-up application is demonstrated. Use tips and techniques shared in this workshop to take your theatrical make-up to the next level. Step into the world of Kryolan Professional Make-Up, as seen used on the SyFy channel's FaceOff. Make-up is a science. Presenter: Katherine Schuster from Kryolan Corp

MO All-State Show: A Streetcar Named Desire - This workshop will review the show's plot, themes and characters. We will also discuss the audition and rehearsal requirements for both actors, tech & musicians. Time will be allotted for Q&A. Presenter: Nicole Voss Troupe 1876

Meet and Greet the Officers - Students who are interested in meeting the candidates for State Student Officers can meet them and ask questions. Become an informed voter for your troupe. Presenters: Various Board members and candidates

New Officer Q and A - Are you a new officer? This is an opportunity to ask questions of experienced officers and become a more effective officer. Presenters: STOs

New Sponsor Q and A - Are you a new sponsor with questions about how to run a troupe, program, or other nuts and bolts concerns? This workshop will answer your questions. Presenter: Lara Corvera Troupe 1934

One Act Wonder: Discovering Delegation - In this 45 minute workshop, we will tackle the idea of delegation. What is it? Why is it important? And how will this work for me and my troupe? Because you're only one person, and in order to be a good ringleader, you gotta recognize you can't be the lions, tigers, and bears while holding the whip. Presenter: Trinity Madison STO Troupe 191

Opening Session - Welcome, kick off for the day, guidance for what sessions are and what to expect from the day. Presenters: various Board members
